

Joan Courtney, Founder and CEO of Women's Prayer International

Biography – May 2015

Current:

- Founder and CEO of Women's Prayer International, 1997 to present.
- Member of the America's National Prayer Committee, 2007 to present
- Member of the San Antonio Christian Business Chamber of Commerce, 2013 to present
- Member of the San Antonio Leadership Forum, 2014 to present
- Active member of Parkhills Baptist Church, 2015 to present
- Married to Sgt. Major LC Courtney (Retired), 2009 to present
- Member of the National Advisory Council for the U.S. National Prayer Council, 2015 to present

Early Background:

- Planned and coordinated lunches for Women of Joy's seven conference cities
- Traveled with Women of Joy to present information to attendees regarding the prayer room in each of their conference cities
- Prayer Manager for Promise Keepers' San Antonio conference
- A member of the Women's Leaders National Association of Evangelicals committee
- Women's Ministry Prayer Chairman and a trainer and speaker in evangelism and prayer activities at Castle Hills First Baptist Church in San Antonio TX
- Friendship Bible Coffee City Coordinator and an event speaker for Stonecroft Christian Women's Clubs
- A residential mortgage loan officer in the San Antonio area
- Certified volunteer hospital Chaplain at the University Hospital in San Antonio on the OBGYN floor and the emergency trauma center
- Owned and operated a Real Estate company in the Rio Grande Valley
- Office Manager, full charge Bookkeeper in Houston
- Airline flight attendant stationed in Fort Worth TX